one of the hollywood reporter's 100 greatest film books of all time invaluable i am sometimes asked if there is one book a filmgoer could read to learn more about how movies are made and what to look for while watching them this is the book roger ebert the new york times book review why does a director choose a particular script what must they do in order to keep actors fresh and truthful through take after take of a single scene how do you stage a shootout involving more than one hundred extras and three colliding taxis in the heart of new york's diamond district what does it take to keep the studio honchos happy from the first rehearsal to the final screening making movies is a master's take delivered with clarity candor and a wealth of anecdote for in this book sidney lumet one of our most consistently acclaimed directors gives us both a professional memoir and a definitive guide to the art craft and business of the motion picture drawing on forty years of experience on movies that range from long day's journey into night to network and the verdict and with such stars as katharine hepburn paul newman marlon brando and al pacino lumet explains how painstaking labor and inspired split second decisions can result in two hours of screen magic

the history of the academy award ceremonies and awards is captured here for each passing year important themes and movies of lasting value are examined for additional ideas sights dialogue stars cast selections racial issues inside relationships and musical impacts keep this this book is based on the movie 12 angry men a black and white film produced in 1957 and based on the book by the same name it narrates the story of twelve jurors bound by the acceptance of their civic duty and thrust together into a hot humid room to deliberate the guilty or innocence of a boy accused of killing his father in a moment of rage this book s 140 a z entries include synopses film stills and production photos please note this is a companion version not the original book sample book insights 1 the mixing room is where the sound tracks are assembled to make the final sound track of the movie it is a job that can be left to sound technicians but that has its dangers for example mixers can raise the audio level of a quiet scene or moment and lower the audio level of a loud scene or moment 2 the process of looping is when an actor recreates a performance and it can be done by some actors who are good at it scenes of violence car crashes and battles can use all sixty four tracks on the board or even more 3 the dolby process simply took all the tapes and suppressed them so that the tape hiss was lost in the upper frequencies soon in movies because of the equalization problems between dolby recorded music and non dolby sound recordings we had to start using dolby on dialogue 4 the one pleasure in a mix comes when the music is added the tedious effort seems worth it the music pumps life back into the picture
