eager to escape life on her family's farm Alice Barrow moves to Lowell in 1832 and throws herself into the hard work demanded of the mill girls. The hours are long and the conditions are bad but Alice soon finds a true friend in Lovey Cornell, a saucy strong-willed girl who is outspoken about the dangers they face in the factories and about Alice opening her heart to a blossoming relationship with Samuel Fiske, the handsome and sympathetic son of the mill's owner but when lovey is found dead under suspicious circumstances a sensational trial brings the workers' unrest to a boiling point leaving Alice torn between finding justice for her friend and her growing passion for the man with whom she had no business falling in love rich in detail this book tells the stories of women of Shiv Sena Shivaji's army a militant political party in western India it provides insight into the political networks powered by lower level women politicians in postcolonial globalizing cities and on their margins based on more than ten years of in depth ethnographic fieldwork with the women of Shiv Sena the work shows how women political activists in urbanizing India conjure political authority through the inventive dangerous and transgressive political personas known as Dashing Ladies Tarini Bedi develops a feminist theory of brokerage politics arguing that political grids where women employ political symbolic and material resources through the political system may be seen as channels of what can be termed political matronage

Enstad explores the complex relationship between consumer culture and political activism for late nineteenth and twentieth century working women while consumerism did not make women into radicals it helped shape their culture and their identities as both workers and political actors this middle school series brings civil war history to life through true stories descriptions of major events and primary source illustrations that will enhance the reader's experience
